1 Plaintiff Oracle USA, Inc., Oracle America, Inc. and Oracle International Corporation
2 (collectively “Oracle”) refer the Court to its Reply In Support Of Its Motion for Reassignment of 3 Matters to Magistrate Judge Peggy A. Leen filed in Rimini Street, Inc., v. Oracle International
4 Corp., Case No. 2:14-cv-01699-LRH-CWH (“Rimini II”) and attached here as Exhibit 1. For all
5 of the reasons stated in Exhibit 1, Oracle respectfully requests that the Court reassign Judge Leen
6 to this matter (“Rimini I”) because reassignment would promote judicial economy and diminish 7 the likelihood of inconsistent results.

8 There are several additional grounds supporting Oracle’s request for reassignment of this 9 matter to Judge Leen. First, as Oracle explained in its motion, the Court has already found that 10 Rimini I and Rimini II are related cases and that judicial economy would be served by assigning 11 both cases to Your Honor and Magistrate Judge Leen. See Rimini II, ECF No. 52. Second, 12 Judge Leen has even more extensive experience adjudicating Rimini I which has been pending
13 since 2010. Third, the current magistrate judge has not made any rulings in this case since Judge 14 Leen’s temporary recusal. Finally, there are still unresolved issues in Rimini I which may 15 necessitate further enforcement or other post-judgment proceedings. See, e.g., Rimini I, ECF No.
16 1049 (granting Oracle’s motion for permanent injunction and awarding Oracle prejudgment 17 interest and attorneys’ fees).

18 For these additional reasons, Oracle respectfully requests that Rimini I be reassigned to 19 Judge Leen.
